DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-36, drawn to a monofilament suture, classified in class 606, subclass 230.
 - II. Claims 37 and 38, drawn to a process for preparing a monofilament suture, classified in class 264, subclass 172.13.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the product can be made by molding the first polymer, the sea, around the second polymer, the island.
3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. During a telephone conversation with Todd Adler on October 5, 2006, a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of a monofilament suture, claims 1-36. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 37 and 38 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Drawings

5. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: 35 (fig. 3A). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Liu et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,626,611). Liu et al. disclose a monofilament suture prepared by co-extrusion (col. 4, line 63), a first polymer with a higher Young's modulus than a second polymer (col. 2, line 65 and U.S. Patent No. 4,052,988), the first polymer having 50 to 90% amount by volume and the second polymer having 10 to 50% amount by volume (col. 2, line 55), the first and second polymers being made of a homopolymer or a copolymer that are listed in the claims of the application (col. 3, line 15-37), the first polymer having a higher melting point than the second polymer (col. 2, line 65 and U.S. Patent No. 4,444,927), the two polymers forming a sea/island suture and a sheath/core suture (Fig. 1A). The reference discloses polyglycolide as an example for the material used for the core portion and polydioxanone for the material used for the shell portion. Polyglycolide inherently has a higher Young's modulus and melting temperature than polydioxanone. Liu et al. also disclose that the maximum diameter of the core is 0.8 mm and the maximum thickness of the shell is 0.5 mm. After calculating the amount percentage of each polymer, the percentages fit the range as stated in the application.
